

SCOUT CENTRE BOHINJ

NATIONAL TRAINING CENTRE »GOZDNA ŠOLA« AND CAMP SITE LAŠKI ROVT

Information for Foreign Scout Groups

Scout Centre Bohinj is comprised of National Training Centre Gozdna šola and Camp site Laški Rovt. Both locations near Lake Bohinj are owned by Zveza tabornikov Slovenije (Scout Association of Slovenia). They are inside the Triglav national Park, where the special rules of conduct have to be observed by the visitors. Both sites provide unique base for all sorts of scout activities in a magnificent natural environment.

NATIONAL TRAINING CENTRE »GOZDNA ŠOLA«

Gozdna šola (»Forest School«) consists of cottage and camp site. It is positioned less than 100 metres from the shore of Lake Bohinj, centre GPS coordinates are: N 46°16.841, E 013°51.015. The beautiful site is used for training courses, Scout camps, seminars, courses, workshops and other – mainly educational events. Lake is ideal for swimming and other water activities in the summer. There are many marked walking and mountaineering trails in the surroundings, cable car (operating year round) to Vogel ski resort 1000 m above the lake etc. The centre can be used as a base for wintertime activities, such as skiing, ice-skating, sledging too.

Accommodation in the COTTAGE, available all year:

- Beds for 46 persons in 8 dormitories,
- Toilets and washing facilities, showers, warm water,
- Multipurpose room (dining hall / classroom), and smaller classroom, both equipped with audio visual equipment and internet access,
- A club room for rest and relaxation.

CAMP SITE LAŠKI ROVT

Camp site is a great location for a proper scout summer camp. It is situated just about 4 km from Gozdna šola, and only about 1200 m distant from the lake - or 10 to 15 minutes on foot through the woods. Camp site GPS coordinates are: N 46°16.039, E 013°53.698.

The camp site is a meadow in the woods. It is divided in two parts: one for camping of up to 50 and the second of up to 90 participants. There are often several small scout groups camping there at the same time. Groups of at least 90 participants, can book the whole campsite for themselves.

Each half of the camp site is provided with potable water from public tube for cooking, drinking and washing, one cold-water shower and chemical toilets.

CAMP SITE FEE

The camp site fee is 5.70 EUR per person per night. Firewood is provided at a price of 80 EUR per m³.

Discount for larger groups:

- Groups between 50 and 100 persons: 50 persons pay full price, the rest have 15 % discount,
- Groups up to 200 persons: 50 persons pay full price, persons 51 to 100 have 15% discount, the rest have 30 % discount.

The camp site fee covers:

- Hiring of the space at the camp site,
- Potable water for drinking, cooking, and washing,
- Hiring and cleaning of the chemical toilets (1 cabin per 10 - 15 persons, cleaning once a week),
- Carting of the separated waste.

Groups have to:

- Have their own tents, kitchen and other equipment,
- Order firewood for campfires and cooking. Gathering of firewood is not allowed in the Triglav National Park. Minimal amount of firewood (depending on the group size and length of camping) is already added to the fee. You can order additional firewood until the end of June in the season of camping, or at least 14 days before arrival to the camp site.

BOOKING OF THE GROUP

To provisionally book the group it is necessary to send:

- A confirmation of group's interest,
